

Mrs. Margaret Levick was the recipient of the Walter Hazlewood Award of Honour at the National Congress in Hobart Tasmania 2003.

The National Council recognised Margaret for her service in several fields including her work as National Secretary 1997–2002 during the term of two presidents, involving all the administrative work associated with blooms classification, incorporation of the ACRS, revision of the Constitution and the launching of Camellia 2000. National Council also recognised her attendance at many regional shows where her bright and cheery manner made her a great ACRS ambassador and her presence as a delegate to many ICS Congresses. In 2002 she was made a Fellow of the Eryldene Trust. She has also written articles for Camellia News.
