

Camellias Originated in Australia

This list may not be complete & may contain errors - please let Camellias Australia know of any you find. The name of the cultivar is followed by its species, the originator (or first known listing) and the year of registration (or listing). Those which have passed through the Australian Registration Process also show their ANZCRS, ACRS or CA Registration Number. For more information about these cultivars, please consult the International Camellia Register and its Supplements, &/or the Camellia Nomenclature Book produced by the Southern California Camellia Society, &/or Camellia News.
